Frequently Asked Questions

If I make an Appearance-Gard® claim, will my insurance premiums go up?

A No. Appearance-Gard® doesn't affect your auto insurance premiums. Our program covers repairs for cosmetic damage, making sure you fix dents, scratches, or other minor damage, keeping your insurance out of it.

I am leasing my vehicle and will be returning it at the end of the lease. How does Appearance-Gard® benefit me?

A Appearance-Gard® can help you save money at the end of your leasing. By covering the costs of minor cosmetic repairs—like fixing dents, dings, and interior damage—it can significantly reduce or even eliminate the wear and tear expenses you would otherwise have to pay at the end of your lease.

I am planning to purchase a pre-owned vehicle; can I get Appearance-Gard®?

A Yes! Appearance-Gard® covers used vehicles, too. As long as it has no pre-existing cosmetic damage at the time of sale, you can keep a pre-owned car looking new without worrying.

What does Appearance-Gard® cover?

A Appearance-Gard® takes care of common cosmetic damage that can happen to your vehicle. It covers paintless dent repair for small dings and dents (without affecting your original paint), fixes rips, tears, or burns in your fabric or leather seats, repairs or replaces chipped/cracked front windshields from road debris, and even replaces lost or damaged keys/remotes. If you want even more coverage, with Appearance-Gard® Plus, you also get refinishing for alloy wheels damaged by curb rash or scrapes.

Do I have to pay a deductible when making an Appearance-Gard® claim?

A No, there is no deductible. Appearance-Gard® pays the cost of covered repairs, up to the coverage limits, so you won't have any out-of-pocket deductible to worry about when using the coverage.

Can I transfer my Appearance-Gard® coverage if I sell my vehicle?

A Yes, Appearance-Gard® coverage can be transferred to the next owner if you sell your vehicle. It's a great way to boost your resale value because you're not just selling a car, you're passing on peace of mind.
